NATURAL SPLENDOR

Kerala has two rainy seasons, the first starts in June and the second in mid-October and finally ends around mid-November. Unlike some other places, the monsoons in Kerala do not take the form of incessant rain over days and weeks. The typical pattern is that it rains for a few hours followed by golden interludes of soft sunshine through the wet palm fronds.

A rich natural experience.

The streets get washed by the pool of water, drenching the dry earth, the tender leaves getting wet and fresh, leaving the lush green scenery. Everything together makes monsoon, a rich natural experience
