NATURAL SPLENDOR

The 'Backwater Capital of India', Alleppey should be called as the 'Backwater Paradise in God's Own Country'!

Fondly called the 'Venetian Capital of Kerala' or the 'Venice of the East' too

Shikara Boat Cruise

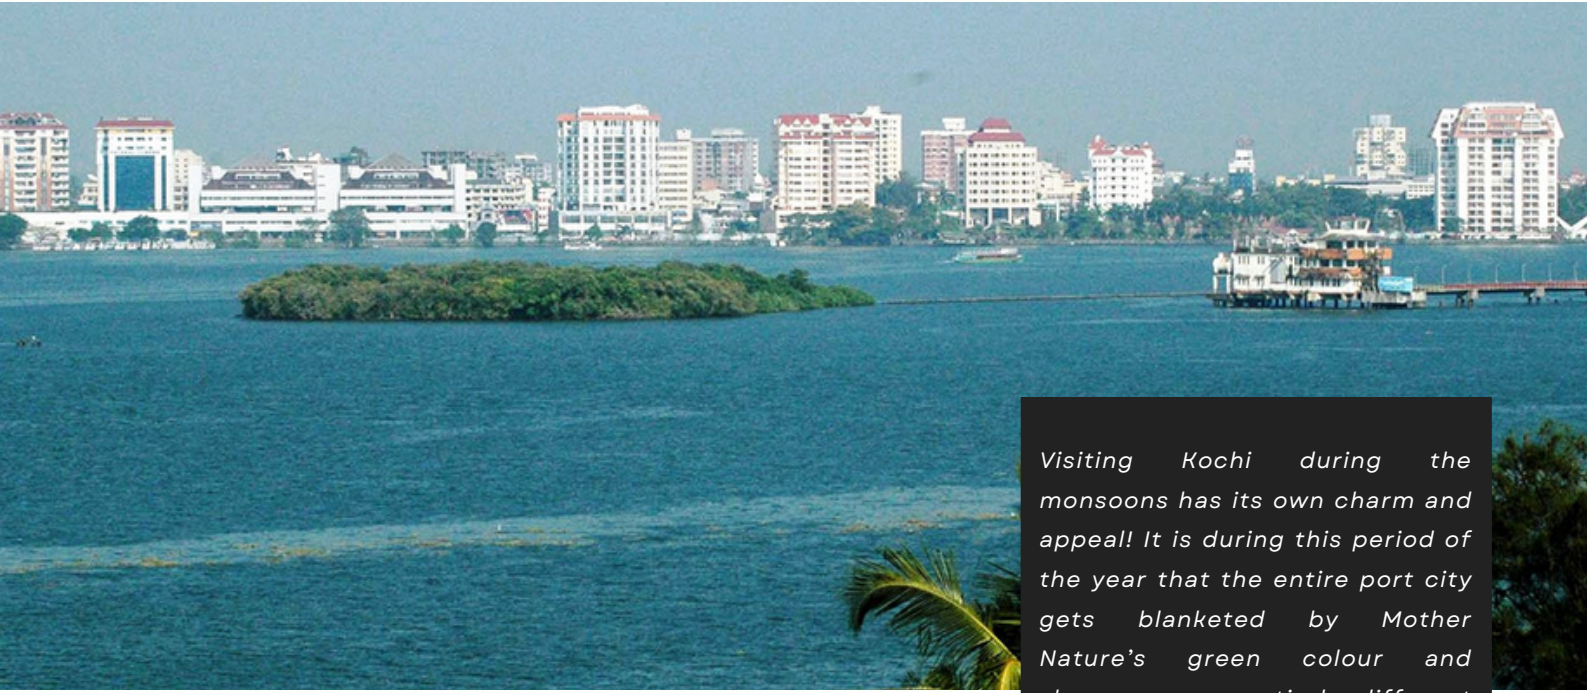

A Shikara is a traditional wooden country boat which is mostly seen on the Backwaters of Alleppey. Taking a Shikara ride is one of the most relaxing, fun filled and enjoyable way to go sightseeing during your holidays in Alleppey. You can see lush vegetation, stunning palm groves, and picturesque villages. One should include in itinerary if the surreal beauty of the backwaters and village life has to be explored. As shikara boats are small in size compared to houseboats, it can move through narrow areas through the backwaters

Living in a houseboat at Alleppey is a captivating experience.

KOCHI "THE QUEEN OF ARABIAN SEA".

Visiting Kochi during the monsoons has its own charm and appeal! It is during this period of the year that the entire port city gets blanketed by Mother Nature's green colour and showcases an entirely different facet of Kochi!

Monsoon Is the Best Time to Visit Kerala

The streets get washed by the pool of water, drenching the dry earth, the tender leaves getting wet and fresh, leaving the lush green scenery. Everything together makes monsoon, a rich natural experience. Kerala experiences the monsoon season in all its beauty. People from different parts of the country travel to Kerala to have a refreshing experience of monsoon. As nature gets replenished with the rains, it is the rejuvenation time for mankind also. According to Ayurveda, the traditional medical treatment form of Kerala, monsoon is the considered as the best season for the rejuvenation therapies.

Valpara
(The
Seventh
Heaven)

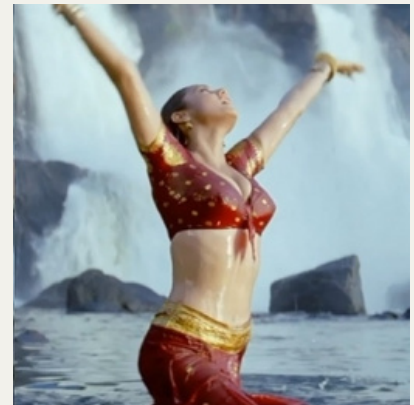

Valparai Hill Station

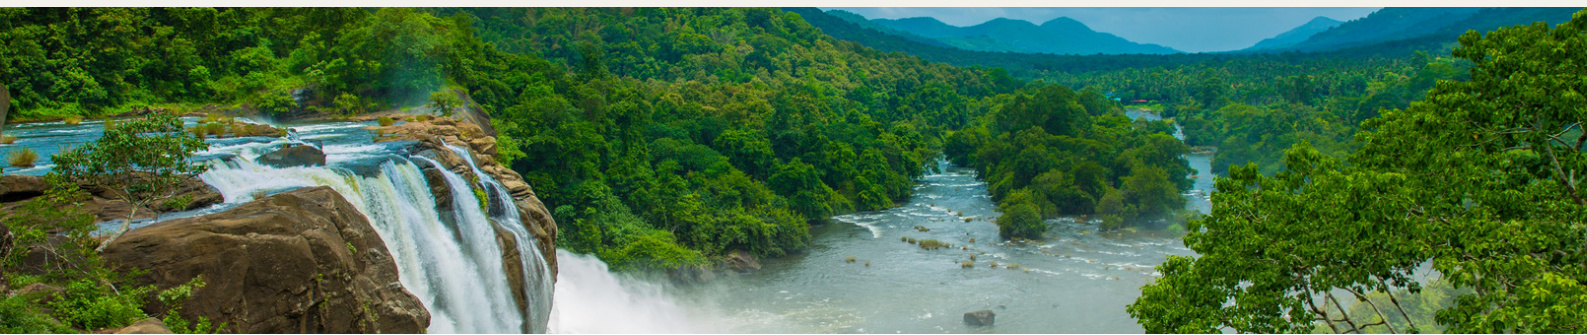

Valparai is close to Pollachi and stands majestically with mesmerizing green spread mountains, waterfalls, dams and secluded valleys. It has vast areas of tea and coffee plantations amidst thick woodlands. It is a perfect destination for a pollution-free and peaceful ambience.

The route from Athirapally to Aliyar is full of wild animals and wild elephants are a common scene in this route. Bear, Deers and sometimes even Leopards appear in Malakkappara – Valpara route. Malakkappara & Valparai has got full of Tea estate. It has got some of the largest tea estate in India.

Scenic Overflowing Waterfalls

As you walk down the stone slabs that lead to the base of the Athirappilly waterfalls, a mysterious serenity overcomes you. It is Kerala's most famous and largest waterfall at over 80 ft high. The sight of the water crashing onto the ground leaves you with a sense of wonder at the sheer power and magnificence of nature.
